73 Thompson St, Scotland Island

Comfortable Family Home

Inviting, spacious and light this split level timber home has an outlook across lush greenery to glimpses of Pittwater.

The lower level is open plan with high cathedral ceilings, polished timber floors, a slow combustion fire and reverse cycle air conditioning.

The kitchen has wide windows with a leafy outlook, dishwasher and an adjacent pantry/utility room.

Enjoy indoor/outdoor living with access from the dining room through French doors that open onto a private covered wrap around entertaining deck and which features a built-in BBQ and bar fridge.

The home consists of three bedrooms within the house with the large and private master bedroom having builtin wardrobes. The mezzanine level, which is a great location for a home office, has the two other double bedrooms and modern bathroom leading from it.

The fourth bedroom or family room is separate and has big builtin storage has its own spacious deck.
