Two good sized children's rooms are a few steps down, both having access to a lower deck area.

The lower level is an enormous room which can be used as a play room or yoga/painting studio and has plenty of power points should you wish to use the space as a large home office. The area could also be used as a teenagers retreat with a separate entrance.

Underneath the home is a large laundry with ample storage and a workshop.

The rear garden is fully fenced, ideal for a dog.
